About

The Business Bulletin is an exclusive benefit of BSRIA membership, putting key data and industry trends at your fingertips. Published quarterly, each issue is included in our member mailings, and is available to download online. The Bulletin is produced for BSRIA Business, which is a suite of member services supporting key business decisions:

- The BSRIA Business Network which provides excellent opportunities to share ideas and make valuable business contacts through regular meetings - tracey.tilbry@bsria.co.uk
- Online resources: www.bsria.co.uk/business including an e-copy of the Business Bulletin, full results from our consultants workload survey, and news. Search our extensive technical and business collections, and order the latest articles from the Financial Times, Harvard Business Review and The Economist

- Business e-awareness: service of regular e-mails and alerts on key policy, legislation and other business intelligence - information@bsria.co.uk to join the mailing list
- Business enquiries: call the Information Centre on 01344 465571 for business and technical guidance.

At our next Business network event on the 25th September BSRIA industry experts will be focusing on two of the hottest topics in construction right now:

- BIM – How to get started, Government requirements and the BIM Road Map
- Soft Landings – the case for culture before process

This is intended to be a thought provoking meeting designed to invite members to debate ideas and issues surrounding these processes and discuss possible support needed for the industry going forward.

Our data

Where we get our data from...

The Information Centre collects and monitors technical, business, government and legislative data from a range of authoritative print and online sources. We refer to established industry publishers such as Hewes & Associates, as well as our in-house information professionals and technical experts. Access to our print and e-collections, legislation and other resources is available online www.bsria.co.uk/members.

BSRIA consultants workload survey

We survey over 700 consulting engineering companies on a quarterly basis concerning their current workloads. The full results are available to download from www.bsria.co.uk/business, and a summary is provided to non-members who take part. If you would like to contribute, please email information@bsria.co.uk.

Market research consultancy

Product, world insight and some M&E data is extracted from BSRIA's market research reports. Our Worldwide Market Intelligence (WMI) is a highly respected source of private-client consultancy, providing regular multi-client updates on the latest products and market trends. Services such as competitor analysis, data collection, and forecasting are available at a discounted rate to BSRIA members - visit www.bsria.co.uk/wmi or email balinder.kaur@bsria.co.uk.

Interpreting our data

Figures shown are for Great Britain, unless otherwise stated. Our numbers are rounded and therefore the sum totals may appear inaccurate.
